

La tua NENNOLINA

Biographical Notes

Antonietta Meo, affectionately called “Nennolina,” was born in Rome on December 15, 1930. At the age of three, she attended nursery school with religious sisters, and at age five, she enrolled in Catholic Action, in the group for the littlest ones. At six years old, osteosarcoma forced her left leg to be amputated. Already at that age, she had a concept of the value of suffering that was incomprehensible without the grace of God.

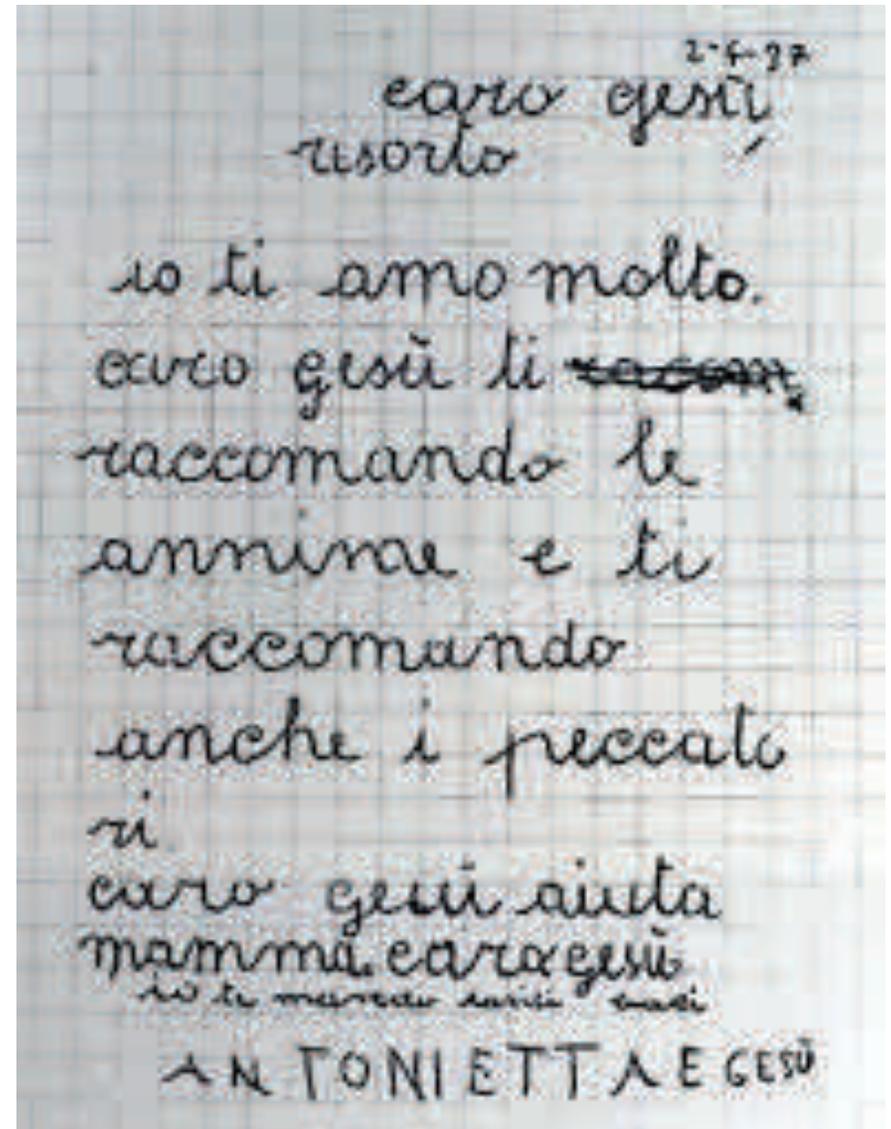

A religious sister who was a nurse in the clinic testified: “One morning, while I was helping the nurse who was in charge of the room of the little girl, her father entered. After caressing her, he asked her: “Do you feel much pain?” And Antonietta said: “Daddy, the pain is like fabric, the stronger it is, the more value it has.” The religious sister added: “If I had not heard this with my own ears, I would not have believed it.”

She attended elementary school at the age of six, with a prosthesis that bothered her greatly. However, she offered it all to Jesus, “May each step that I take be a little word of love.” She wanted to celebrate the day of the anniversary of her amputation with a big lunch and with a novena to Our Lady of Pompeii, in order to give thanks that she was able to offer her suffering to Jesus.

The night of Christmas of 1936, she received her First Holy Communion with great fervor and a few months later she was confirmed. The amputation of her leg had not stopped the tumor that had spread to the head, hand, foot, throat, and mouth. Both the illness itself and the treatments intended to heal her caused her great pain.

She liked to attend school and catechism class; she wrote to Jesus, “I go enthusiastically, because I learn so many beautiful things about You and Your saints.” Having not yet reached the age of seven, she died in the midst of terrible pain.

On December 17th, 2007 Pope Benedict XVI declared Antonietta Meo, “Venerable.” Her life has been a witness of sanctity for children who suffer.

Four Steps to Sainthood

The Catholic Church teaches that there are four steps to become a Saint. Before a person can be considered for sainthood, he or she must have been dead for at least 5 years.

First Step: When the subject arises that a person should be considered for Sainthood, a Bishop is placed in charge of the initial investigation of the person's life. If it is determined that the candidate is deemed worthy of further consideration, the Vatican grants a Nihil Obstat. This is a Latin phrase that means "nothing hinders." From this moment, the candidate is called a "Servant of God."

Second Step: The Church Official, a Postulator, who coordinates the process and serves as an advocate, must prove that the candidate lived heroic virtues. This is achieved through the collection of documents and testimonies that are collected and presented to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome. When a candidate is approved, he or she earns the title of "Venerable."

Third Step: To be beatified and recognized as a "Blessed," one miracle acquired through the candidate's intercession is required in addition to recognition of heroic virtue (or martyrdom in the case of a martyr).

Fourth Step: Canonization requires a second miracle after beatification, though a Pope may waive these requirements. (A miracle is not required prior to a martyr's beatification, but one is required before his or her canonization.) Once this second miracle has been received through the candidate's intercession, the Pope declares the person a "Saint."

What is a Novena?

Its name deriving from the Latin word "novem," meaning "nine," a novena is nine days of private or public devotion in the Catholic Church to obtain special graces. Though they are not part of our liturgy and remain a "popular devotion," novenas have been prayed since the very beginning of the Church. Mary and the Apostles prayed from the Ascension of Our Lord to Pentecost, a period of nine days (Acts 1). Also, a nine-day period of supplication was a pagan Roman and Eastern practice, so novenas were easily accepted by the earliest converts in these lands.

The Christian and Jewish meaning of the number "9" entered into Christian thinking on the matter, as "9" was associated with suffering, grief, and imperfection, making it a fitting number for when "man's imperfection turned in to prayer to God" (Catholic Encyclopedia). St. Jerome wrote that "the number nine in Holy Scripture is indicative of suffering and grief" (Ezekiel 7:24).

Novenas, then, often, but not necessarily, have about them a sense of "urgency." They are typically made for special intentions, one's own or another's ("I'll make a novena for you"). Novenas to certain Saints are often made according to that Saint's patronage. St. Jude for "desperate cases," St. Peregrine for cancer patients, etc.

There are four main types of novenas:

- novenas of mourning, such as the novena made during the novemdiales – the nine day period following the death of a Pope.
- novenas of preparation, or "anticipation," such as the Christmas or Easter Novenas
- novenas of prayer
- the indulgenced novenas

In some novenas, the same prayer is said each day for nine days, or sometimes nine times in one day. Others may have (or add) different prayers for each of the nine prayer sessions.

Prayer to obtain graces through the intercession of Venerable Antonietta Meo

O God, Father of the humble, we thank You because with Antonietta Meo You gave us the gift of a living image of Your Love and Wisdom, revealed to the young.

You, who gave her the grace of being joined to the Cross of Our Lord Jesus, and of suffering with fortitude and joy, make her glorious even now on earth, so that everyone can look to her as a shining example of loyalty to the Gospel.

Grant us her simple and passionate love for the Eucharist and the Church; draw near to us in our need and, by her intercession, according to Your Holy Will, give us the grace which we request in faith.

WE HUMBLY REQUEST HEALING FOR FRIDA GALVAN, PETER ESCHENBACH AND ALL CHILDREN WHO SUFFER FROM CANCER. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be...

“I want to be your lily that remains forever to adorn your altar.”

Fifth Day

Little Letter to Jesus Scourged

 Dear Scourged Jesus, You who suffered so much for us in the scourging, O Jesus You didn't deserve to suffer and I admit all my sins and I ask Your forgiveness. Dear Jesus we have been really bad and I ask Your forgiveness for my sins and for all the sins of the others and You who are so good forgive them and let them go to Paradise. Dear Jesus You suffered so much during the scourging with patience. I want to learn that if someone gives me a slap or teases me I mustn't give it back but I have to be kind with him in the name of Your love. Dear Jesus I offer to You all my sacrifices for all the sins that sinners will commit and are committing, but help me because I can do nothing without Your help. Dear Jesus, I love You so much and I want to stay with You forever. Dear Jesus, I want to be Your lamp that burns a flame of love near You and your lily which decorates your altar and adores You. Dear Jesus, this Holy Week I want to pray all the time and make acts of mortification. Dear Jesus, I don't think I've been naughty today and I offer You the acts of mortification I've done. Let me do more and more of them during this week so that I'll really decorate the altar when Easter comes, O Jesus, and You will have risen from the dead, and love must rise again with You in our hearts. Dear Jesus, this week I want to write a letter to You every night and on Easter day I want to write a letter more beautiful than the others. Dear Jesus, good-bye and I kiss Your Wounds.
